Looks fine to me, Allison.

Before I send out to the pesticide group, I was wondering if you can take a look at the pesticide rationale. I updated it with the newest issues paper, so I'd appreciate your thoughts on what and what not to include. After I hear from you, I'll send out to the rest of the pesticides team. FYI - I'm going to start working on the response to comments today for pesticides, but probably won't get you something until next week.

Can you give me the name of your NOAA contact in Seattle or Portland on the BiOps? I think you may have already. Given what Linda Liu sent, I'd like to talk personally with someone at NOAA who did the BiOps to make sure I understand what the process was for looking at herbicide effects on salmon and steelhead.

Thanks, Allison. Talk with you later today in the check-in call. - Jenny

All--

As we mentioned on the call yesterday, please provide me any final edits to our Sept. update to NWEA by COB tomorrow (9/24). Our response is due the end of the month. The latest version is attached that includes a recommendation from Jeff and Steve to remove reference to the legal team meetings.

Subject: Original 1998 language on Oregon's Additional MMs for Forestry and how these MMs were developed

All,

Attached are a couple documents that our managers in particular may find helpful as they review materials from us. Our management has also requested that we include information right up front that presents the actual condition language in our issue-specific documents.

1. A subset of NOAA-EPA's 1998 Conditional Approval Findings Document for Oregon with the Additional Management Measures for Forestry highlighted in yellow. The articulation of the condition is very general in the CONDITIONS section, but very specific in the RATIONALE section.
2. A "Timeline for Oregon's Additional Management Measures for Forestry and Related Documents" assembled from HQ's paper files.
